HELP SHARE CHILD WELFARE, SLOGAN FOR CHARITIES

Captains Chosen for Teams Which Will Collect Fund to Carry on Work

"Help Share Child Welfare," is the slogan that has been adopted by the Bureau of Catholic Charities, to be used during the campaign for funds that will be staged the first week in September.

In addressing a group of men and women who assembled at the White Inn Monday night to organize Glendale's team for the drive, W. Joseph Ford, a Los Angeles attorney who is chairman of the executive board, had many arguments in behalf of the campaign.

"I have not the time to spare for this work," he said, "but I couldn't refuse to accept the chairmanship when I realized the work that the bureau is actually doing and how much more it could do if it had the funds. This last year alone more than 2,000 children were cared for and saved from death, disease, deformity and crime.

"You must not think that this is an affair of creed. It is a work of humanity and patriotism. What the bureau has accomplished on very limited funds is already attracting the attention of social workers of the whole United States.

Of Every Denomination

"Father Corra has so splendidly systematized his organization that it can guarantee that 95 cents out of every dollar contributed actually reaches the destitute children for which it was intended. These children are not half of them Catholics; they are children of every denomination and color. Fifty of the leading surgeons and physicians in Los Angeles do their child welfare work through St. Rita's clinic, and over half of them are non-Catholics, and these doctors are making the community better for the whole population by preventing disease, deformity and crime.

"The big business organizations of Los Angeles are all behind the bureau because they appreciate the fact that it represents twenty-six organizations and is avoiding the waste of money usually spent in duplication of effort.

Captains Are Chosen

George McLaughlin was elected captain of the men's team for Glendale and Mrs. Carrie Farrell captain of the women's team. Each of these captains will choose ten people to work under them in canvassing the city.

Those who took an active part in Monday night meeting were: Joseph F. X. Devane, secretary to Rev. W. E. Corra, director of the bureau; George McLaughlin, Jesse E. Smith, William F. Kelley, H. B. Henry, Tom Smith, Leo McMahon, Frank P. Dunn, Jack Thomas, Miss Susan Wendell, Miss Broussard, Mrs. M. H. Finn, Mrs. J. F. Zimmer, Mrs. J. O'Neill Farrell and Mrs. W. B. Kelley.

Prepares For Feast

John Schelde, cook at the Ross ranch, caught a young raccoon yesterday. He is keeping the animal as a pet until it gets fat enough to eat. It is said that roast raccoon is equal to young pig. Wildcats, coyotes and other predatory animals are very often caught in the foothills in northeastern Glendale, according to Joe Pagliuso, manager of the Ross property.

Visitors At Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Jock Sanderson of 750 East Acadia street spent last week at Hermosa Beach as the guests of Mrs. E. T. Holmes of 426 West Burchett street. Jock Sanderson was a member of the First Scottish division in the first British expeditionary force. Mrs. Holmes' brother, David Sutherland, killed in action in 1914, was a member of his company.

Mr. Oppenheim has won fame as a novelist and according to records at the public library his stories have appeared in the American, Everybodys, Harpers and the Century magazines.

Among his works are the following novels: Wild Oats, The Nine-Tenths, The Olympian, Idle Wives and The Beloved. He also has written the following books of poems: Monday Morning, War and Laughter, Book of Help and The Solitary. The Pioneer, a poetic play, and Pay Envelopes, a book of short stories, also are from his facile pen.

Mr. Oppenheim was editor of The Seven Arts magazine during 1916 and 1917.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Creel of 126 South Jackson street will have as their guests during the next three months the following relatives: Mrs. Alice Poole, sister of Mrs. Creel, and children, Margaret and John of Honolulu; Mrs. Creel's father, R. T. Freyer of Missouri, who is 86 years old; two other sisters, Mrs. F. L. Mayes of Missouri, and Mrs. H. A. Garrison of Florida; and a brother, J. T. Freyer of New Mexico. During their visit here they will hold a family reunion.

A cousin, William Putcamp, who was decorated for bravery and obedience during the world war, acted as best man.

Enjoy Auto Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lucas of 309 South Brand boulevard have returned from a most delightful three weeks' auto trip. They visited Yosemite valley, Sequoia National park and many other points of interest, and enjoyed fishing and camping along the way.

Outing At Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Leo D. Goode and family of 226 Dayton court left on Sunday for Long Beach, where they will enjoy a two weeks' outing. They were accompanied on the trip by Miss Lillias McGibbon of 135 North Cedar street, this city.

Back From Island

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burton of 114 South Orange street have returned to Glendale from Catalina Island, where they enjoyed a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Burton, who is warehouse foreman at the local Pacific Electric freight depot, returned to his work Monday morning.

Plan New Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Kresling and small daughter, Hope, were in Glendale Monday making preparations to build a residence on their recently purchased lot at 704 East Elk street. At present Mr. and Mrs. Kresling are living in Los Angeles.

PATTERSON AVENUE PARK ENLARGING PLAN OUTLINED

Chamber of Commerce Seeks Increase In Land for Recreation Purposes

Development of Patterson avenue park on an extensive scale was contemplated yesterday at a meeting between S. C. Hahne, administrator of the Hahne estate, and a special committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Two big features of their discussion were:

1. The opening of Patterson avenue to the San Fernando road.

2. The acquiring of additional land for the park.

The Chamber of Commerce is asking Mr. Hahne to donate one and three-quarters acres of land lying between the park and the Verdugo wash channel and in turn the committee will recommend the purchaser of ten acres of property linking the park with the Burbank car line, thereby giving approximately twenty-three acres to the city for recreational purposes.

An additional gift of a small strip by J. R. Grey also enters into the enlarged park plans and as he is a member of the chamber's committee it is believed that it will be granted. Other members are Richardson D. White, C. D. Lushy, W. P. MacMullin and James M. Rhoades.

Willing To Help

Mr. Hahne, whose property interests in the northwestern section of the city are quite large, showed a willingness to co-operate in the development there provided the court would approve his action.

At the present time the city is developing an auto camp ground and bonds have been voted for a swimming pool which will likely be in operation early next year. Mr. Hahne is now obtaining the necessary information from the city to present the matter before the court in which the Hahne estate is being settled.

At Catalina Island

Mrs. J. J. Nesom of 125 West Elk street will spend the coming week at the St. Catherine Hotel at Catalina Island.

William MacMullin's Feet Suddenly Grow to Twice Their Size

Mr. and Mrs. William P. MacMullin and daughter, Helen De Laine, of 215 North Brand boulevard returned to Glendale Sunday, after having spent a week's vacation at Catalina Island. Mr. MacMullin, however, claims that his week's vacation only lasted one day, the remaining six days being nothing less than torture.

On the day of their arrival at the "magic isle" Mr. MacMullin donned his bathing suit and sallied forth to take a dip in the briny deep. Had he taken the dip and called it "quits" for the day everything would have been O. K., claims the jovial real estate agent, but he chose to enjoy a sun bath on the sand for the next hour.

No ill effects were noticed by Mr. MacMullin until the next morning, when his feet, which had been badly sunburned, were swollen twice their normal size. The rest of Mr. MacMullin's vacation was spent in bed.

Although he hasn't returned to his work yet he will probably be seen at his desk in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Purchase Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Vincent, who were married in Glendale several weeks ago, returned to this city Monday afternoon, after spending their honeymoon in Berkeley and Yosemite. They are visiting at the home of Mrs. Vincent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue.

The newlyweds, who are well known to Glendale's younger set, have purchased the home at 620 West Doran street and will move into it on August 15. Until then they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbert.

Plan Trip East

Otto P. Miller of 519 West Colorado boulevard, employee of the quality grocery, is planning on leaving this city for Chicago and other eastern points in the near future. He will be accompanied by W. Howlett, a local expressman. The young men will probably remain in the east several months, and return to Glendale next spring.

Guests Over Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hyne of 316 Ethel street had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hartman of Hollywood.

WOMAN PRESIDENT OF RAILROAD IS VISITOR HERE

Only One Other In World at Head of Road; Tells About Her Management

Mrs. Phoebe Clark of Nashville, Tennessee, who is one of the two women railroad presidents in the world, arrived in Glendale yesterday and is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. J. C. Bardsley and Mrs. Nelson Gibbs of West Burchett street.

Mrs. Clark's railroad is not a trans-continental line, but it is all of twenty miles long. This makes it just eight miles longer than the Amador Central railroad in Amador county, California, of which Mrs. Netta J. Ericson is president.

Mrs. Clark became president of the Tennessee, Kentucky & Northern railroad in 1914 succeeding to that office upon the death of her husband, George A. Clark. She was elected to the office of vice-president the previous year, so was not inexperienced when she took over the full duties of the head of the road.

Plenty Of Business

The railroad lies about 100 miles east of Nashville and connects with the Tennessee Central railroad. It carries timber from the Cumberland mountains and makes up in business what it lacks in length. Mixed trains run through daily besides the timber trains and the motor train, which is a novelty in itself, the engine being originally in a White motor truck, but with new wheels and a new body serving very nicely for emergencies.

Her success as a railroad president, Mrs. Clark says, is largely due to the splendid co-operation she has had from the board of directors, the bond holders and the employees.

There has never been a strike on the road, because the management believes in fair play and profit sharing. Each one of the fifty-five men employed on the road receives 10 per cent of their year's salary each Christmas and they are a happy, satisfied group of men, she says.

Mrs. Clark leased the road in 1912 for fifteen years. But last year the bond holders extended the lease till 1936 and expressed their appreciation of Mrs. Clark's management.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Stahl Have Purchased Home

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stahl, who have been living at 327 Mira Loma avenue for the past year, have purchased the home at 424 West Wilson avenue. They will take possession of their newly obtained property in the immediate future.

Given Surprise

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kearne of 1010 East Wilson avenue were very pleasantly surprised last night when the following relatives and friends came in to spend the evening: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kearne of 221 North Howard street, Dr. Arthur Stevens, Miss Lizzie Stevens, Mr. June Stevens and son Paul of 735 East Wilson avenue, and Ralph Newton, who recently arrived in Los Angeles from a tour of the Pacific coast and came out to call on his friends, they having resided in the same town in the east, Singlehouse, Pa., before coming to Glendale.

One Day In Jail

Ladro Moreno was found not guilty of an alleged assault with a deadly weapon in Justice of the Peace H. M. Miller's court here a month ago. But Mary C. Rodriguez, one of the complaining witnesses who failed to appear, was hailed into court last Saturday on a bench warrant and ordered to serve a day in the county jail. Constable Henry Purrier located the woman after a month's search in Los Angeles.

At Grand View

Wilmot McIntyre Has Unique Way of Taking His Annual Vacation

Wilmot McIntyre, chief clerk in the building inspector's office, has "struck" an idea whereby he can stretch his regular two weeks' vacation into a period twice that long. And what's more, he's getting away with it. Here's the way he's doing it:

Instead of taking the first two weeks in August for his vacation, he is enjoying every other day off, thereby extending the period through until September 1. In this way he claims that the rest doesn't become monotonous, while at the same time his work at the city hall is kept more nearly "up".

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, who live at 135 North Cedar street, have rented a cottage at Redondo for the month of August. They spend every night there, Mr. McIntyre making the trip to Glendale on his "work" days.

Hold Family Reunion at F. A. Hanger Home

At the present time one family lives in Los Angeles and the other in Hollywood.

This is the first family reunion that the Hangers have held in six years. In the morning the party motored to La Crescenta and in the afternoon they visited Mrs. Hanger, Sr., who has been quite ill but who is now much improved.

At Long Beach

Mr. Hilbert was formerly a resident of Glendale but is now engaged in the real estate business in Long Beach.

On Fishing Trip

A. W. Van Loon and family are enjoying the day at Hermosa Beach fishing. Yesterday he outfitted the boys with every available type of hook for the different species of the finny tribe. ## C. OF C. DIRECTORS GUESTS OF HONOR IN WOODLANDS

F. P. Newport Company Host to Officials; Verdugo's Attractions Praised

Diverging from their regular routine, the directors of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce this noon motored to the Old Adobe in Verdugo Woodlands, where they were the luncheon guests of the F. P. Newport company.

The invitation was extended the board by W. L. Twining, general manager of the concern, through James M. Rhoades, secretary of the Chamber. Besides meeting the many visitors who are brought to the rapidly developing foothill tract, the directors had the privilege of hearing R. H. Horton, sales manager of the Newport company, tell of the attractions of Glendale in general and Verdugo Woodlands in particular.

In Spanish Style

The luncheon was Spanish style with Robert Russell as chef and the salesmen assisting in the serving. Whether it was the meal, or the atmosphere, or Mr. Horton's talk, or all three, the visitors returned to their places of business downtown with greater enthusiasm for Glendale and its future.

Mr. Horton first took up the history of Verdugo Canyon; its settlement by the Spaniards and their building of the original adobe in 1806, where today the guests were dining. He pointed to the old rose vine planted 106 years ago by Tia Logena Verdugo, who is still living in Verdugo Canyon at the ripe old age of 117.

Chances for Investment

Then he introduced the Verdugo Woodlands property from the standpoint of the homebuilders and the investor, bearing on its ocean breeze, its abundant water supply and 1000-foot elevation above the sea level that practically eliminates fog.

Mr. Horton then spoke of the investment possibilities, mentioning the numerous improvements made by the Newport company and mentioning the fact that the entire tract lay within the city of Glendale, the fastest growing suburb of Los Angeles. He gave as an example the remarkable increase in property values in Glendale to show the board of directors and the invited guests what the possibilities are in this wooded section.

Building Permits to Establish New Mark

Glendale's 1921 banner building record continues to soar, this morning's permits bringing the grand total to approximately two and a half millions. This exceptionally high figure is one that has never been attained in the same length of time by any city in the country with a population of less than 25,000.

With almost five months remaining in the year less than $650,000 in building will be required to surpass the 1920 mark, which established a national record.

Although August is generally considered as a "dead month" the permits already total $108,240. At the present rate about $350,000 will be the month's record. The total for the year stands at $2,489,539.

Truly Astonishing --

The service your watch gives. It runs night and day—week after week—month after month—without stop. Often year after year without being cleaned or oiled.

No wonder it gets out of order occasionally.

However, much watch repairing would be eliminated if you would have your timepiece thoroughly cleaned and oiled once a year.

We make a specialty of repairing watches, clocks and all kinds of jewelry.

Gum Clew In Murder Mystery Fails; Third Degree Tried, Claim

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Investigation here today by detectives weakened the case against Arthur C. Burch, held in Los Angeles in connection with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy.

One of the strongest points against Burch, Los Angeles authorities say, was the finding on Burch's person of a receipt for a shotgun at the store of Von Lengerke and Antonio Antoine here.

Probe here showed the "receipt" was a ticket for a gun Burch left there to be repaired, but never called for.

He was to call for it February 1. Search of the company's books were made, however, to determine whether Burch had any other transactions with the store.

Third Degree Is Alleged
 LOS ANGELES, August 9.—Madalynne Obenchain was given the dreaded "third degree" in an effort to wring from her a confession of complicity in the murder of John Belton Kennedy, the young woman's mother declared today.

"My daughter is being persecuted in an effort to obtain a 'confession,'" she said.

"You'd better talk fast, young

Forrest Jordan Is Assistant Director of Junior Orchestra

Another new venture of this auxiliary is the mixed chorus, which is to be organized the latter part of this week.

lady," they told her. "You know what we did to Mrs. Peete. We held her in front of her eyes."

Mrs. Louise Peete, who is in the same jail corridor as Madalynne, is under conviction for the murder of Jacob C. Denton, rich mining man. "When they threatened her, and talked of what they did to Mrs. Peete, Madalynne refused to say anything at all," the accused girl's gray-haired little mother, Mrs. Emma E. Smart, continued. "They were forced to change their tactics before Madalynne would talk to them."

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have temporarily closed our Market No. 2, located in the Logan Block, Casa Verdugo, due to the fact that that section did not annex to the city of Glendale, causing overhead expenses to be so great that we could not afford to continue to sell our quality meats at our low prices. Rather than raise our prices we decided to close at this location temporarily.

Watch for the announcement of the re-opening of Store No. 2 as soon as we find suitable quarters.

We thank our many patrons of the old No. 2 store and assure them they can have their needs in quality meats promptly filled by phoning Market No. 1, as we deliver to all parts of the city.

The facts of the matter is, that a few days ago the boss and me come to a agreement without comin' to blows, as how I was to have a vacation for a week, if I would write a couple articles about wherever I went, if anywhere.

So here I be.
Well, so far Katie, I been so busy seein' the sights that I ain't had no time to write no articles.

It seems as how there's more places for a innocent tourist to go look at in this here town, than there is patches in a crazy quilt. Monday mornin' I started out to write a article about somethin' and I was as full of confidence as a guy that's writin' his first scenario for the movies, but to tell you all about the wonderful sights I have looked at since I been here would fill a book as thick as a Nick Carter novel and twice as interestin'.

To write a article about San Diego would be like buyin' a $100.00 typewriter at 10c a day. It would take too long. More anon.

Yours, headin' south,
E. C. HALE.

This Dog Harmless;
It Has Bark, But Never, Never Bites

Here's a story of a dachshund that wasn't "made in Germany."
Like Topsy, it just grew.

C. O. Dundas of Long Beach, who with his sister, Miss Sadie Dundas, are guests at the home of their brother, George E. Dundas, 423 West Harvard street, is the owner of the nature freak.

A branch of an apricot tree grew in such peculiar fashion as to resemble the dog. In depicting the elongated stick of wood, Mr. Dundas says:
"This dachshund has a bark, but never bites."

Mrs. Abraham Steckel Honor Guest at Picnic

On Friday night of last week a group of former residents of Michigan motored to Brookside Park, Pasadena, where they enjoyed a picnic supper and social on the lawn.
The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Abraham Steckel of Portland, Ore., who is spending a short visit at the home of Mrs. Flora I. Bates of 634 North Kenwood street, and was attended solely by people who formerly lived in or near Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Those who took part were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schuyler and their son, Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Sawyer, Mrs. F. S. Bates, Miss Flora Bates and Frank McCloud of Glendale; Lee Selton of Tempe, Ariz., and the guest of honor, Mrs. Abraham Steckel of Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Steckel will leave for her home in the northern city on Wednesday of this week.

Rooster Valued at $150 Stolen; Coyote Is Blamed for Theft

In speaking of the "wild and wooly west" L. C. Denman of 327 Madison court claims that he experienced a touch of frontier life Friday night of last week when "Adolph," one of his prize stock of chickens, was taken by an intruding coyote. Mr. Denman's home, which is located at the foot of the old Tropico hill in South Glendale has been "spotted" by numerous foul-eating animals during the last two years, but this was the most particular of all the night prowlers.

"Adolph," the blue ribbon rooster, that fell the victim of the cunning nocturnal soloist, was given to Mr.
Denman several months ago by his friend, J. D. Klepper of Pasadena.
During the past three years he has been awarded numerous prizes and medals, and at one time was considered to be the best stock White Wyandotte rooster in the country.
"Adolph" was valued at $150.

the occasion in red and white, that appropriate combination being carried out in each room.

The tiny host of honor was the recipient of many attractive gifts from his numerous admirers, and the kiddies present spent most of their time demonstrating them, while their elders enjoyed the evening in music and a general social time. Vocal solos by Mrs. C. M. Retts, Mrs. Joseph Marple and Dr. Joseph Marple, respectively, were encored several times by the appreciative audience.

Refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served during the evening.

Those present at the gala occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Retts and

Looks Like Pennant Really Cinched; Indians Scalped
During Past Week

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Put about a half dozen more Washington clubs in the American league and the New York Yanks would have to win a pennant.

The bumping that the Cleveland Indians got in the national capital last week forced the erratic Huggins clan into first place and furnished the only feature of the major leagues.

Back on the old home grounds, after wobbling on the tail of their eastern jaunt, the Pittsburgh Pirates are again creeping away from the pennant and making it look like the pennant is "in" in the National league.

Pirates, Four Out of Five
The Pirates won four out of their five games last week while the Giants dropped two out of eight. The Braves split even in six starts and the Robins and the Cards speeded up a little and won five out of seven.
The Reds split even in eight games while the Cubs won only two out of seven games and the Phils two out of six.
The Yanks went into first place by winning three out of five games while the Indians hit a bad slump and landed only one out of six starts.
Washington won six out of their seven games. Detroit dropped two out of six. The Browns and Red Sox won four out of seven and the White Sox and Athletics dropped three out of five.

time carried these lines he has now received an exceptionally large order of the latest electrical stoves, fixtures, etc., and will devote a large part of his time to this department of the store.

The show windows of the McPeck store have been decorated with fixtures, wherein a varied display of electrical labor saving devices have been arranged.

Watching Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero—Rogers Hornsby hit two homers and gave the Cards a 7 to 6 win over the Braves.
The Indians took a pair from the Athletics, 4 to 3, and 7 to 6, and regained the lead in the American league race.

Babe Ruth hit his fortieth and forty-first homers, but the Yanks split even with the White Sox and dropped to second place. The Yanks won the first, 7 to 0, and then dropped the second, 5 to 4.

Seventeen hits off four Brown pitchers gave the Senators a walkaway victory, 16 to 5.

Sedgwick, relief pitcher for the Phils, forced in two runs with passes and helped the Reds win, 9 to 3.

Grimes outpitched Lefty Cooper in a hurler's battle and the Robins beat the Pirates, 4 to 2.

Boston made it eight straight by trimming the Tigers, 6 to 1.

Four runs in the seventh inning and two in the ninth brought the Giants from behind and enabled them to beat the Cubs, 6 to 3.

DETROIT TIGERS TO

LEFTY HERMAN

Glendale Youth In Western Canadian League Given Boost In Baseball

Floyd "Lefty" Herman, Glendale's phenom player of baseball, has been sold by the Western Canadian League to the Detroit Tigers, to report September 5, according to word received last night by his father, C. F. Herman, of 441 West Harvard street.

Herman has been playing a wonderful game with the Edmonton Esquimos the past season after quitting high school for professional ball. His rapid rise reminds followers of the national pastime of Howard Ehmke, who is on the Tigers' pitching staff. Detroit should give due credit next year to Glendale's contributions to their line-up.

While Ehmke's forte is putting over puzzling pills, Herman hits like a Bambino Ruth. He has been the batting sensation of western Canada and the scouts have had an eye on him all season.

Gets Wife, $11,000 In Six Months; It's Done on th' Screen

When Earle Williams as Bob Bellamy in "Diamonds Adrift" returned with a wife and $11,000 in less than six months demanding to be taken into partnership his wather was speechless. He could not believe that the son he had regarded as worthless could reform in such a short time. The story furnishes Earle Williams with a role that allows him to display his athletic prowess, his spirit of adventure and ability at romantic love making.

You will see this as the featured film at the Glendale theatre today only. The eighth episode of "The Diamond Queen" starring Eileen Sedgwick; a new Rolin comedy and the Pathe review combine into a splendid program.

If for no other reason you will want to see "Diamonds Adrift" because it is a tale of California and Old Mexico.

L. E. Jones Is Moving to Farm In Oregon

L. E. Jones, said to be the only colored resident living in his own home here, has sold out and is moving to the state of Oregon.

During the years of residence here at 232 South Verdugo road he has been very industriously employed at digging cesspools and this year he had forty acres of vacant property planted to vegetables.

He has turned over his crop to others and is going north to develop a ranch which he has purchased in the north. The removal of this family will mark the exit of all colored home owners from Glendale, it is said.

in the Rock Bottom store room at 133-135 South Central avenue for the proper handling of meats and fish. Marble front glass topped show cases and a modern refrigeraclassiest markets in Glendale.

Saul Frank of 214 North Central issue of the Philadelphia Public Ledger which made its appearance in 1834. It made quite a feature of stage coach schedules which in those days were the only mode of public travel other than by boat.

From a historical standpoint the Quaker city journal of events is quite interesting.

Carnegie committee on hero medal awards to act. They passed the hat and the collection was presented the brave lad by Dr. W. F. Jones, superintendent of the home.

Bang! Bang! Then Jail!

Charlie Miller of San Bernardino for ten years has been boyishly planning on becoming a gunman. Yesterday afternoon he got all "rigged out" in the regalia he had read about as suitable for gunmen and, after firing 100 shots at neighbors, etc., he landed in jail. His father was a famous bear hunter.

Teddy Has Disappeared

"Teddy," for seven years the pal of Roscoe Arbuckle and other film comedians, has broken his most recent contracts by disappearing. He has the "eat a plate of ice cream every day" habit and he will open doors and do other things quite uncommon, says his owner, J. E. Simpkins of Los Angeles.

Convict Minister's Daughter

Edna Duvall, 21, daughter of the Rev. J. D. Croan of El Monte, is the first woman in the state of California to be convicted by a jury of manslaughter for having run down a pedestrian with her automobile.
She will be sentenced Thursday. It was alleged she ran past a street car and hit a man alighting.

Singer Midgets Are Shown as Feature of Comedy, Palace Grand

The advent of the Singer Midgets as a sensational feature of "Skirts," the six-reel Sunshine comedy which is being shown at the Palace Grand today is a landmark in comedy production. The Midgets are by far the most remarkable aggregation of small people that ever stepped before an audience.

"Skirts" is built on gigantic lines, and is the most expensive comedy ever screened. Every member of the Fox comedy forces, including 3000 Sunshine widows, was recruited for this monster laugh-raiser.

"Made in Heaven," starring Tom Moore, supported by Helene Chadwick and Molly Malone, is the feature of the great double bill. Many people are availing themselves of the opportunity of seeing the new Wurlitzer master unit organ's installation at the present time.
